

Amelia Cannon, RMA, a registered medical assistant, is the administrative assistant for the OU Children's General and Community Pediatric Section Chief and the Registered Medical Assistant for the OU pediatric multidisciplinary weight management clinic, Healthy Futures. She earned her Medical Assistant certification in 2004 from High-Tech Institute in Irving, Texas. After her externship, she received her registration from American Medical Technologist, Dallas, Texas in 2006.