

Robert Katz, M.D. Biography

Robert Katz, M.D. is a Pediatric Pulmonologist who works at the The Children's Hospital on the OUHSC campus. His areas of expertise include asthma, bronchopulmonary dysplasia and the management of the child at home on a ventilator. He is the consulting pulmonologist at The Children's Center/Rehabilitation Hospital in Bethany. In addition he is the director of the Spinal Muscular Atrophy treatment program at The Children's Hospital.