

Angie Thomas, PA-C

Angie was born and raised in Oklahoma City, she went to the Oklahoma School of Science and Mathematics for high school; class of 2010. She then decided to stay local, attending the University of Oklahoma in Norman where she obtained a major in Microbiology and a minor in Religious Studies, graduating early with honors. She then went on to attend the Oklahoma University Health Sciences Physician Assistant Program that she graduated from in 2016 with her masters. She currently works as a PA-C at the VA Medical Center in both Rheumatology and Pulmonary Oncology. In her free time she enjoys spending time with her family, listening to music and catching up on her favorite TV shows.
