

Beth Quick-Andrews, CAE, Principal, has over 25 years of practical experience working with organizations that cover a spectrum of disciplines and industries. Whether it is board of directors facilitation, membership management, meeting planning, financial management, communications or general administration, Beth's skills and expertise are as diverse as her clients. Beth's mission is to work with organizations that want to streamline operations and maximize member return on investment. As a managing partner, Beth is responsible for operations management that effectively serves the client.

Early in her career, Beth was honored by the United States Small Business Administration as the Missouri Young Entrepreneur of the Year in recognition of her creative approach to developing a small business and significant achievements as a young business owner. Ms. Quick-Andrews holds a B.S. degree cum laude in Business Management and Political Science from Maryville College-St. Louis. She is a member of the Delta Mu Delta Business School Honor Society.

Demonstrating her commitment to excellence and ongoing professional development, Beth earned her Certified Association Executive credential through the American Society of Association Executives. Only 21.5% of all ASAE members who are eligible hold this prestigious designation.

Beth works with a number of organizations including:

Healthcare

- American College of Cardiology-Missouri Chapter
- American College of Cardiology-Oklahoma Chapter
- American College of Healthcare Executives-Missouri Chapter

Philanthropy/Fundraising

- Association of Fundraising Professionals
- Saint Louis Planned Giving Council
- Youthbridge Community Foundation

Business and Finance

- Human Resources Management Association of Greater St. Louis
- Mortgage Bankers Association St. Louis Chapter
- Association of Corporate Counsel St. Louis Chapter

Hospitality

- Meeting Professionals International St. Louis Chapter
- Saint Louis Attractions Association

Association Management

- Saint Louis Institute for Association Leadership

Communications

- Community Service Public Relations Council

Alumni Association

- Notre Dame Club of St. Louis

Professional Services

- Institute for Challenging Disorganization (500 members) – 8 Years

In the capacity as the management company, we have been responsible for all facets of managing the administration of the organization including board of directors' facilitation, meeting coordination, membership/database management, communications and financial management. We also provide the value added resource of serving industry clusters. This allows our clients to partner together on projects/events to have a greater impact in the industry or profession.

Professional Affiliations:

- American Society of Association Executives
 - Beth Quick-Andrews holds the Certified Association Executive Designation (CAE)
 - Member of the ASAE 2011 Annual Meeting Host Committee (5,500 Attendees)

- AMC Institute (trade association for Association Management Companies)
 - Past Chair of the Membership Task Force
 - Past Co-Chair of the Content Delivery Taskforce

- St. Louis Institute for Association Leadership

- St. Louis Convention and Visitors Commission

- American College of Cardiology—Chair, Chapter Executives Steering Committee

- Maryville University-John E. Simon School of Business National Leadership Council
 - Immediate Past Chair

- Association of Business Support Services International, Inc.
 - Named a Pathfinder in March, 2000
 - Presenter at two International Conferences
 - “Success Through Association Management” and “What Would You Do If You Were Brave? A Business Support Service Owner's Guide to Strategic Planning.”

- Office Support Network (Local affiliated chapter of ABSSI)
 - Past President, Treasurer and Secretary