

Shana has been working with the OU Department of Dermatology since 2017, when she first moved from Texas to Oklahoma City. She serves as an Administrative Assistant to many faculty members at OU. She is also the departments Medical Student Coordinator. During her free time, Shana enjoys taking care of her aquariums, visiting new places, and spending time with friends and family.