

Charles B. Pasque, M.D.

Biographical Information

Dr. Charles Pasque is a Professor in the Department of Orthopedic Surgery, OU College of Medicine where he serves as the Residency Program Director, Research Director and Sports Medicine Director. He holds the J. Andy Sullivan Chair in Orthopaedic Surgery Resident Education. Dr. Pasque takes trauma call at the OU Medical Center Level I Trauma Center and also has a general orthopaedic practice with sports medicine emphasis at the OU Physicians Building at the OUMC. Dr. Pasque also serves as a Team Physician with the OU Athletic Department where he helps provides medical coverage for Men's and Women's Track and Field, Men's and Women's Cross Country, Women's Volleyball, Women's Softball, Men's Baseball, Men's and Women's Tennis and Golf. He is also a Captain in the United States Navy Reserve where he has deployed overseas 3 times and currently serves as an orthopaedic surgeon for Expeditionary Medical Facility Dallas.

Dr. Pasque resides in Norman where he lives with his beautiful wife of 33 years, Tammy Morain

Pasque and their six children, Cooper (wife Hailey), Kyle, Colin, Kurt, Amy and Hannah.