

Phebe Tucker, M.D. is Vice Chair of Education and Arnold and Bess Ungerman Endowed Chair in Psychiatry at University of Oklahoma College of Medicine. She has conducted published research on Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, trauma, anxiety disorders and education, and has an active clinical practice. Dr. Tucker has taught medical students and residents extensively since joining the faculty in 1989. Prior to medical school she received a B.A. in English Literature from the University of California, Berkeley, served in the Peace Corps in Cote d'Ivoire, and taught in California and Australia. She and her husband have 2 grown offspring and love to travel to distant places.