

Shannon earned a bachelor's degree from Kansas State University where she studied biology and gerontology. In 1997, she graduated from the Wichita State University Physician Assistant Program. Her past clinical experiences include the Department of Veteran Affairs and the Tulsa Day Center for the Homeless. Prior to assuming the role of Program Director within the University of Oklahoma School of Community Medicine Physician Assistant Program, Shannon served as the Director of Clinical Education and Associate Director. In addition to administrative responsibilities, her teaching involvement includes Geriatrics, Underserved Medicine, Clinical Medicine, and Professional Issues in Medicine and Health. Shannon participates in the clinical training of students in the Physician Assistant Longitudinal (PAL) Student Clinic at OU Family Medicine.