

Benjamin C. Hannah, MD, FAAP

Ben Hannah bio

A native of Tennessee, Ben attended medical school in Memphis before completing combined internal medicine/pediatrics residency along with hospice and palliative medicine fellowship in Louisville, KY. He moved to Oklahoma City to begin work with the pediatric palliative care team in 2021. His main goal is to provide compassionate care to children with serious illnesses and to their families throughout the course of their disease. He also enjoys teaching medical trainees principles from palliative medicine that apply to their fields and career goals. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with his wife and their dog, learning new hobbies, exploring the outdoors.
