

Lauren Dankwa MSN, APRN, AGCNS-BC

Lauren is from Moore, Oklahoma and received her Nursing undergraduate degree from OSU-OKC and SWOSU. Lauren worked at Oklahoma Heart Hospital while also pursuing and earning a Master's in Nursing at OUHSC. Lauren joined OU Health as a Cardiovascular - Thoracic and Inpatient Transplant Manager for a year and then moved into the Oncology APRN-CNS role after passing boards.

In Summer 2021, Lauren began in the APRN Hospitalist/Administrator role at Integris Baptist Medical Center, assessing / treating/ admitting ER patients and coordinating Physician patient flow including assignments and geographic rounding.

Lauren's goals include using evidence-based practice to treat the adult patient from illness to wellness. The most effective practice includes treating patients holistically and educating them to prevent acute on chronic episodes. Lauren is trained in nursing theory and clinical practicum through the spheres of patient, nurse, and system.
