

Muhammad Adnan Altaf, MD

Dr. Altaf is currently an Interim-Section Chief in the Division of Pediatric Gastroenterology and Associate Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center. He is also the Program Director for Pediatric GI Fellowship since 2016. He graduated from medical school at King Edward Medical University in Pakistan. He completed his residency training in Pediatrics at University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center in 2006 and went on to do a fellowship in Pediatric Gastroenterology at the Medical College of Wisconsin in Milwaukee. He also had additional training in gastrointestinal motility disorders in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. After finishing his fellowship, he returned to University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center and joined as a faculty in 2009. He is board-certified both in Pediatrics and Pediatric Gastroenterology. He has presented at many local & national meetings including DDW, NASPGHAN and CCFA. Dr. Altaf's focus of clinical and research interests is motility and functional gastrointestinal disorders in children. He is the primary investigator for clinical drug trial in pediatric constipation at University of Oklahoma. At University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center, he has established regional programs of excellence for Aerodigestive disorders and Gastrointestinal Motility disorders.