Jana Bingman, M.D.
Assistant Professor
Program Director, Child Psychiatry Fellowship
Oxley Foundation Chair in Child Psychiatry
OU-TU School of Community Medicine

Professional Practice Gaps:

Provide information to faculty and residents on loss and associated grief in children and adolescents.

Learning Objectives - Upon completion of this session, participants will improve their competence and performance by being able to:

Identify the difficulty we have as clinicians in dealing with grief and grieving individuals.

Recognize the significance of loss and associated grief in children and adolescents.

Review the basic types of grief as experienced by children and adolescents.

Explain ways we can support grieving youth.

Assess awareness of useful resources for the clinician.

Disclosure & Resolution Report

The University of Oklahoma College of Medicine and the Irwin H. Brown Office of Continuing Professional Development must ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all its activities. We have implemented a process where everyone who is in a position to control the content of an educational activity has disclosed to us all relevant financial relationships with any commercial interest. In addition, should it be determined that a conflict of interest exists as a result of a financial relationship one may have, this will be resolved prior to the activity. This policy is designed to provide the target audience with an opportunity to review any affiliations between the CME organizers and presenters and supporting organizations for the purpose of determining the potential presence of bias or influence over educational content. The following is a summary of this activities disclosure information.
