2023 Virtual Mark Allen Everett, MD, SKIN OF COLOR SYMPOSIUM

The 2023 Virtual Mark Allen Everett, MD, Skin of Color Symposium will be presented by the Department of Dermatology Friday, May 5, 2023, 7 a.m. – 3 p.m.

This one-day event will be held virtually via Zoom.

This symposium will feature multiple dermatology experts in skin of color, as well as other speakers and panelists, selected for their knowledge and commitment to diversity in medical education and healthcare.

The purpose of the symposium is to 1) increase the knowledge of its attendees regarding skin of color conditions and 2) identify diversity gaps within the field of medicine.

Intended/Target Audience:

Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN), Clinical Nurse Specialist (CNS), Medical Student, Non-Physician, Nurse, Nurse Practitioner (NP), Physician, Physician Assistant (PA), Primary Care Physician (PCP), Registered Nurse (RN), Aestheticians, Cosmetologists, Hair Stylists, Barbers, and specialty physicians including: Adolescent Medicine, Dermatology, Family Medicine, General Medicine, General Pediatrics, Geriatric Medicine, Internal Medicine, Medical Education, Pediatrics, and Plastic Surgery.

Please direct any questions to Renee Wall at (405) 271-4662 or renee-wall@ouhsc.edu.

Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this activity, participants will improve their competence and performance by being able to:

1. Prepare healthcare providers, residents, fellows, students, aestheticians and hair care specialists to recognize the unique dermatologic features of skin of color.
2. Assemble a forum to exchange valuable information regarding medical, surgical, and cosmetic dermatologic conditions of skin of color.
3. Examine cultural competence as it relates to dermatology and the field of medicine at large.
4. Recognize national experts in the field of dermatology.

Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS Competencies)

- Patient care
- Practice-based learning/improvement
- Professionalism
- Medical competency
- Interpersonal and communication skills
- Systems-based practice

Welcome to the 2023 Virtual Mark Allen Everett, MD, Skin of Color Symposium presented by the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine Department of Dermatology. I am excited that you have chosen to join us virtually for this educationally-stimulating event!

This symposium showcases nationally-recognized dermatology experts in skin of color, as well as other speakers selected for their knowledge and commitment to diversity and cultural competence, especially in the field of medicine. This year's symposium will also include a special panel discussion on Transracial Hair Care.

In an effort to bridge the knowledge gaps in dermatologic skin of color conditions and cultural competence, the Mark Allen Everett, MD, Skin of Color Symposium is offered to a broad audience including: healthcare providers, staff and administrators, healthcare students and trainees, as well as aestheticians and professional hairstylists.

Thank you to all of our sponsors for your generous support. We especially acknowledge the Everett Family Foundation for their continued partnership and vital support. Dr. Mark Allen Everett was a former chair of the OU Department of Dermatology, past president of the American Board of Dermatology and the American Society of Dermatopathology – a true giant in the field of dermatology. Through the Mark Allen Everett, MD, Skin of Color Symposium, we celebrate Dr. Everett's passion for academic excellence and respect for diversity in dermatology coupled with the Everett family's desire to support a recurring quality educational program with national reach.

I also want to thank the Mark Allen Everett, MD, Skin of Color Symposium planning committee for their dedication behind the scenes; providing advisory and technical support to produce an exceptional educational program.

Again, welcome! May this symposium be an enriching experience for each of you. Participants can earn up to 6.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ and are eligible for 6.25 contact hours of ANCC credit.

Sincerely,

ACCME/AMA PRA Accreditation Statement

The University of Oklahoma College of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Oklahoma College of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 6.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Nursing Continuing Education

ANCC Accreditation Statement

OU Medicine, Inc. is accredited with distinction as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

6.25 CNE contact hours will be awarded for meeting the following criteria: 90% attendance of conference, completion and submission of evaluation form.

This educational activity does not include any content that relates to the products and/or services of a commercial interest that would create a conflict of interest.

Mitigation Statement

The University of Oklahoma College of Medicine, Office of Continuing Professional Development has reviewed this activity's speaker and planner disclosures and has mitigated all relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies, if applicable.

Policy on Faculty and Presenters Disclosure

It is the policy of the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine that the faculty and presenters identify all financial relationships with ineligible companies relating to the topics of this educational activity, and also disclose discussions of off-label or investigational drugs/devices and/or therapies during their presentation(s).

Acknowledgment of Commercial and In-Kind Support

Commercial support is financial, or in-kind, contributions given by an ineligible company, which is used to pay all or part of the costs of a CE activity. An ineligible company is any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients.

This activity received no commercial or in-kind support.

Disclosure and Mitigation Report

The University of Oklahoma College of Medicine and the Irwin H. Brown Office of Continuing Professional Development must ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all its activities. We have implemented a process where everyone who is in a position to control the content of an accredited continuing education activity has disclosed to us all financial relationships with any commercial interest/ineligible companies. In addition, should it be determined that a conflict of interest exists as a result of a financial relationship one may have, this will be mitigated prior to the activity. This policy is designed to provide the target audience with an opportunity to review any affiliations between the CPD organizers and presenters and supporting organizations for the purpose of determining the potential presence of bias or influence over educational content.

The disclosure and mitigation report for all planners, moderators, presenters, authors and others can be found in the online syllabus.

University of Oklahoma Equal Opportunity / Non-Discrimination Statement

The University of Oklahoma, in compliance with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity, gender expression, age, religion, disability, political beliefs, or status as a veteran in any of its policies, practices, or procedures. This includes, but is not limited to: admissions, employment, financial aid, housing, services in educational programs or activities, or health care services that the university operates or provides.

To file a grievance related to the non-discrimination policy, report sexual misconduct, and/or file a formal complaint of sexual misconduct, please utilize the reporting form at link. ou.edu/reportingform.
